

GRANTS OF JALMARI AND RAUHA AHOKAS FOUNDATION AND HILJA AND PEKKA VUORISALO FUND

The purpose of Jalmari and Rauha Ahokas Foundation is to promote, develop and support medical research in the fields of pulmonology, psychiatry, and endocrinology. In 2024, the foundation will distribute up to 410 000 euros in grants. One major grant and several smaller personal grants will be available for application. The major grant can be divided among several applicants if considered appropriate. Grants will not be awarded for conference travels. Doctoral candidates are required to submit their applications as personal grants. Applications for the major grant may also include doctoral candidate grants or salaries and, if necessary, also other research expenses.

The Hilja and Pekka Vuorisalo fund, associated with the foundation, supports cancer research at the University of Helsinki. In 2024, the fund will distribute up to 40 000 euros in grants.

The application period for all the aforementioned grants shall be 1.8.2024 – 31.8.2024. Applications must be submitted electronically using the application form available on Jalmari and Rauha Ahokas Foundation's website www.ahokkaansaatio.org. The form is only available during the application period.

The application must include curriculum vitae, list of publications, research plan, and a copy of the statement from the ethical committee. If a grant is applied for as a research group or as a member of a research group, the application must also include the names of the other group members and the group leader.

The application must include the information of the grants received by the applicant/research group during the past five years as well as any pending grant applications. If the applicant has previously received a grant from Jalmari and Rauha Ahokas Foundation, or from Hilja and Pekka Vuorisalo fund, the application must also include a report on the use of such grant. Applications with all attachments must be submitted electronically by August 31, 2024.
